

The connection between architecture and ideology.

Gabriela Delgado
Maria Isabel Cedeño

Religion

- Churches were constructed to represent or make to tribute to a creed. The influence of religion and power is reflected in the building that since the beginig of official religions, has create wonderful estructures that invite people to contemplate but also realize how small you are in comparisson with state and the godess .
- St. Vitus Cathedral, Prague.

Politics

- The ideology of a city or a country during an specific time is reflected on local architecture because by a way, architecture always wants to show important events of local history.
- Different politic ideologies could be shown.
- South Africa Constitutional Court

Environment

- Architecture is now looking for a balance between nature and human being welfare.
- CSOB
- Colegio Clautro Moderno